February 5, 1963

Mr. William B. Goodman

Harcourt, Brace & World, Inc.
750 Third Avenue
New York 17, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Goodman:

Regarding your letter of February 1 on the advisability of republishing Hundley's Social Relations in Our Southern States, it would be difficult for me to give an off-hand opinion.

Inasmuch as I should be reading (or re-reading) the volume, I now intend to do it in the next couple of weeks and then I shall write you again.

In the meantime, it seems to me that in sending you my estimate as to what to do, it would be very helpful if I had two or three of your paperbacks in the Harbinger series. In this way I can tell exactly what your practice is in regard to footnotes, size, introduction, etc. If you care to do this the ones that would make the most sense for me to look at would be -- actually, I don't think it would make much difference which.

Sincerely,

James W. Silver
